

Help me look for a white knight
An honest savior, honest savior
I'm looking for the right to hide, but
I need the toil, need the bluntness, and I
I've been thinkin' bout my violent side
It might have silently made a start and
You undercover when the shots were fired?
I was silent, I went silently

A few were on strike when the backdoor opened
Howl inside, howl inside, and arm the site
Side by side, love in pieces
And all have fallen, fallen by the side

It's not confined to "back in time"
So why confide in cruel titans?
An iron stand of violent mind
Admit that idle sighs will pull the wool on your eyes

I will bank on Darwin
Lots of sorrow, I will pine
And now you, are oh...
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, you
Yeah you are
Right at the front, hide at the front
Right at the front, oh
Lie at the front, liars in front
Lie at the front, liars in front
Liars discovered, and
I am discovered, I am discovered
I am discovered, I am discovered
I am discovered, and then
I am discovered, liars discovered
I am discovered
For what it's worth
I still don't know what is right
I still don't know what is right
I still don't know what
