Scream Whole

Methyl Ethel

Asinine white light come feed me
Come remind me of my grievances
Twice imbibed
Confer the how and why

With a slight hint of emotion
Waste no though avoiding questioning
And what's the point?
Undo, undo again

Scream "I'm whole!" one more time
Can't remember why
It stopped, go rewind
Screamed whole one more time

What's the art in killing all emotion?
I choke on mine, it's barely noticeable
Who am I to think I could forget?

Scream "I'm whole!" one more time
Can't remember why
It stopped, go rewind
Screamed whole one more time

Scream whole one more time
Can't remember why
It stopped, go rewind?
Scream whole one more time

'Cause I can feel it in the rest of me
A part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue

Yeah I can feel it in the rest of me
Part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue

I can feel it in the rest of me
Part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue

I can feel it in the rest of me
Part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue

'Cause I can feel it in the rest of me
Part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue

I can feel it in the rest of me
Part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue

I can feel it in the rest of me
Part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue

I can feel it in the rest of me
Part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue

I can feel it in the rest of me
Part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue

'Cause I can feel it in the rest of me
Part of what appears to be
More than just a taste on my tongue
