

Always Be My Fault

Metro Boomin

We converse when it's dark
I can hear you in the storm
When you moan, it turn me on
Like to converse in the dark
I can hear you in the storm
When you moan, it turn me on
We conversin' in the dark

Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah

We conversin' over drugs
When I speak, it's from the heart
I can hear you when you call
You know Benjamin's all yours
I'm indulgin' in your heart
I can't let you break my heart no more
I can't let you break my heart (I can't let you break my heart)

It's gon' always be my fault (It's gon' always be)
It's gon' always be my fault (Woah)
It's gon' always be my fault (Oh, woah)
Just pick me up if I fall (Oh, woah)
I can't let you break my heart (Oh, woah)
I can't trust you anymore

I can't trust you anymore
But I did it on my own
Paid the price, now I'm alone
I guess now I'll never sleep again
I just wanna find my peace again, oh
Now I'm haunted by the ghosts
Of the ones I hurt the most
Bedroom like a graveyard
Rather die 'fore I weep again
Turn your tears to a sea again
Played with my heart like a cello
Made you cry in falsetto
Cut you off like giallo
Girl, I told you that this shit is like an opera to me
Ooh, I'll turn your love to tragedy

It's gon' always be my fault (Woah)
It's gon' always be my fault (Woah)
It's gon' always be my fault (Oh, woah)
Just pick me up if I fall (Woah)
I can't let you break my heart (Oh)

Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah
It's gon' always be my fault (No)
Woah, woah, woah (Yeah)
Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah (Yeah)

It's gon' always be my fault
Woah, woah, woah
It's gon' always be my fault
