

I Don't Know You

Metro Station

Light another cigarette
Burn it down to forget
Heading down the ave in a cab
I'm on my way

Just another walk of shame
I don't even know her name
Everything is fun when you're wrong
But I am starting to change

This is it
It's going down
Like we're stuck in a cage
And now want out
Take a look at your cell
And scream and shout

I don't even know you
It feels like I'm supposed to
How'd you get this way?
Seems like yesterday
You had it all figured out

Now I can't even trust you
As much as I would love to
It's taken all my time
I've finally realized
That I don't even know you

Running red lights and
Tearing down the house again
Something's got to give
When you're living this life all alone

I should take first prize
For believing all my alibis
But no one ever wins
When you're telling a lie to yourself, no

This is it
It's going down
Like we're stuck in a cage
And now want out
Take a look at your cell
And scream and shout

I don't even know you
It feels like I'm supposed to
How'd you get this way?
Seems like yesterday
You had it all figured out

Now I can't even trust you
As much as I would love to

I don't wanna wait til the end
To see this all play out
Take me to the last frame
Our time is counting down

I don't even know you
How'd you get this way?
Seems like yesterday

Now I can't even trust you
I can't even, no, no
Now I can't even trust you
I can't even, no, no

Now I can't even trust you
As much as I would love to
It's taken all my time
That I don't even know you
