

Lately

Metronomy

I've been waiting around for someone like her to get in contact with me

She could be the greatest, I know she'd be the greatest
If only she was open to see me

It's all right, though, 'cause I got time
Time is in my essence and time isn't the line
It's all right, though, she'll gimme a buzz
I'll call her my baby and she'll call me her cause
Well, I think I'm in love 'cause

Lately, I'll call you
When I do nothing, oh
Lately, I'll call you
When I do nothing, oh

Well, that is love, yeah, that is love
And it's hard to do, it's a job for two

How do I do I do
If I don't get nothin' from you
And I've so much work to do
Yeah, I've so much work to do now
Oh, it's work for you 'cause

Lately, I'll call you
When I do nothing, oh
Lately, I'll call you
When I do nothing, oh
