

Uneasy

Metronomy

Pull me down
Don't need to take no vows
You're reaching farther now
Than I have ever known

Pull me down
Don't need to take no vows
You're reaching farther now
Than I have ever known

Cuz I'd stand in a line just to meet you
Scribble your name on my wall just to get through
Spending all of my time like I can't do
Anything other than wanting to want you
Anything other than wanting to want you

Pull me down
Don't need to take no vows
You're reaching farther now
Than I have ever known

And I'm a sucker for the evenings and the seasons
And every touch that stays between us
Can't believe it
I just wanna be the reasons
That you throw it all away

Cuz I'd stand in a line just to meet you
Scribble your name on my wall just to get through
Spending all of my time like I can't do
Anything other than wanting to want you
Anything other than wanting to want you

You say that that makes you uneasy
But babe I'm the one that's in touch with my feelings
Either way seems we both are agreeing I'm the one you've been needing I'm the one you've been needing

Pull me down
Don't need to take no vows
You're reaching farther now
Than I have ever known

Pull me down
Don't need to take no vows
You're reaching farther now
Than I have ever known

And I'm a sucker for the evening
And I'm a sucker for the evening
