

Petrified

METTE

It's been a while since I said 'hello' or 'happy birthday'
Since the fallout when you caught a glimpse of me
In the worst way

That I wasn't able to hold you
When I was on my way down
Washed out and rolling under, yeah
But you don't have to worry now

I'm petrified and I can't lie
I'm nothing without you, you
Petrified and I can't lie
I'm nothing without you, you, oh
I fell apart a couple hundred times
Keep losing hold of my state of mind
I'm petrified and I can't lie
Yeah, nothing without you, nothing without you, oh

Won't stop the words from falling out of my mouth
Hard to stay quiet with these memories loud
You had an open heart, I hope I didn't close it
Gave me a running start, I couldn't help but notice

That I wasn't able to hold you
When I was on my way down
Washed out and rolling under, yeah
But you don't have to worry now

I'm petrified and I can't lie
I'm nothing without you, you
Petrified and I can't lie
I'm nothing without you, you
I fell apart a couple hundred times
Keep losing hold of my state of mind
I'm petrified and I can't lie
I'm nothing without you, nothing without you, oh

Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
You, you, yeah, you
Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
You, you, yeah, you
Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
You, you, yeah, you

I'm petrified and I can't lie
I'm nothing without you, you
Petrified and I can't lie
I'm nothing without you, you
I fell apart a couple hundred times
Keep losing hold of my state of mind
I'm petrified and I can't lie
I'm nothing without you, nothing without you, oh
