

Acid

Metz

I'm waking up to watch the colours change
So high above the maze of sewer grates
My cluttered mind has finally come alive
Because you're here to look me in the eye

I see you
Burning inside
I see you

No ceiling now and no more wasted light
No ceiling now, no ceiling now
Out of the blue and back into the light
No ceiling now, no ceiling now

It's getting clear I'll never be the same
I've followed you into another plane
No more holding on for something else to take

I see you
Burning inside
I see you

No ceiling now and no more wasted light
No ceiling now (no ceiling now)
No ceiling now
Out of the blue and back into the light
No ceiling now (no ceiling now)
No ceiling now
No ceiling now (no ceiling now)
No ceiling now

Wasted light
Wasted light
Wasted light
Wasted light
