James
If you heed the call
And you go outside, I'm walking tall
And always there
Forever you will make it
You can always say, "Who's laughing now?"

James
If you need a friend
Well come on over
You don't need to knock
And I'll be home
The door is always open
And we both could say, "Who's laughing now?"

Oh James
If you find you fall then
You just go outside and you walk
Oh James
No, you're never too far off

James
If you find you fall then
You just go outside and you walk
Oh James
No, you're never too far off

If your fire's out
There's no need to shout
I'm always home
You just walk on in
I'll make you tea and breakfast
And we both could say, "Who's laughing now?"

Oh James
Oh James
Oh James
You're never too far off
You're never too far off
