

Different Kind of Love

Mia Martina

And you
Hope instead of me
Never thought that it would be
Someone I tell everything
And me
Hope instead of you
Never thought that it could be
Something more than company

Put my money on the table, everything scheduled
So it's hard to make time for things that comes natural
(Yeah)
I just wanna live life with someone effectual
And I wanna make time for someone beautiful

Cuz' it's only your love
A different kind of wave
Cuz' it's only your love
A different kind of wave
Cuz it's only your love
That makes me feel this way
Cuz it's only your love
Your love, your love, your love
A roxy tide of wave

(Cuz it's only your love)
(Cuz it's only your love)
(Cuz it's only your love)

A different feeling hits me as I want you
Central healing makes me need you
Morning, evening, breakfast, just to feed you

Patience, just now cuz baby, I got you

Put my money on the table, everything scheduled
