

Not Enough

Mia Wray

I close my eyes and try to hold my breath
Sink under water I count back from ten
Can't reach the bottom, I'm out of my depth
And for a moment I'm myself again

It's not enough to keep my love a secret
It's not enough to say it's nice to meet you
It's not enough to kiss you in my head
I wanna know how this story ends

Even if it breaks my heart
I wanna hold your hand, don't wanna hide who I am
Even if it breaks my heart
I wanna hold your hand, don't wanna hide who I am
Even if it falls apart
If I'm not in your arms
Then it's not enough
Even if it falls apart
If I'm not in your arms
Then it's not enough

And now she started picking up the pace
She said she loved me right then to my face
I'll always remember us this way
It's in her arms I'll forever stay

It's not enough to keep my love a secret
It's not enough to say it's nice to meet you
It's not enough to kiss you in my head
Can you tell me how this story ends

Even if it breaks my heart
I wanna hold your hand, don't wanna hide who I am
Even if it breaks my heart
I wanna hold your hand, don't wanna hide who I am
Even if it falls apart
If I'm not in your arms
Then it's not enough
Even if it falls apart
If I'm not in your arms
Then it's not enough

Some day we'll be driving down the highway
Saying things that we could never say
We made it out of yesterday
Oh some day we'll be driving down the highway
Saying things that we could never say
We made it out of yesterday
Oh

Even if it breaks my heart
I wanna hold your hand, don't wanna hide who I am
Even if it breaks my heart
I wanna hold your hand, don't wanna hide who I am
Even if it falls apart
If I'm not in your arms
Then it's not enough

Even if it falls apart
If I'm not in your arms
Then it's not enough

Not enough
It's not enough
Not enough
It's enough
