

Only Love

Mia Wray

Oh. You walked right through the door
I could've died. It's like my core
Was ripped wide open
Turned up to feel the heat
And with your electricity I was broken

When the bar closes and the lights come up
I'm scared I'm gonna say a little too much
No turning back now
It's all on the table
What if I reached out and you turned me away?

'Cause I feel like my heart is on fire
I think that I could burn this house to the ground
Maybe I'm just losing my mind
I wanna figure it out
Why can't I figure it out?

'Cause it's only love
Yeah. It's only love
But is it enough, if it's only love?

All the words that we don't speak
And the secrets that we keep
I feel so guilty
I've been hiding what I need
And the way you look at me
Oh, God! It kills me

Been feeling lonely
So, does that make me selfish?
I'm scared I'm gonna say a little too much
No turning back now
It's all on the table
What if I told you're all I think about?

'Cause I feel like my heart is on fire
I think that I could burn this house to the ground
Maybe I'm just losing my mind
I wanna figure it out
Why can't I figure it out?

'Cause it's only love
Yeah. It's only love
But is it enough, if it's only love?

Don't feel like waking up
What's real just ain't enough
And you don't know me, know me, know me, know me, love
And I'm not giving up
And you can call my bluff
Yes. I'm in lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely, love

Don't feel like waking up
What's real just ain't enough
And you don't know me, know me, know me, know me, love
And I'm not giving up

And you can call my bluff
Yes. I'm in lonely, lonely, love

'Cause I feel like my heart is on fire
I think that I could burn this house to the ground
Maybe I'm just losing my mind
Why can't I figure it out?
Why can't I figure it out?

'Cause it's only love
Yeah. It's only love
But is it enough, if it's only love?
