

Rerun

Mia Wray

I'm not trying to make this hard
I'm just trying to play my part
And bless my soul
If I can make it through this mess alone
I can't make this up

So rerun
Waking up
I call shot gun
Lay it up
For the rerun
Baby it's a rerun

If there's one thing that I know for certain
Live this life as though I've earned it
And I will grow and make mistakes
Honey you should know
I can't make this up

So rerun
Waking up
I call shot gun
Lay it up
For the rerun
Baby it's a rerun

And call back
On my line
I need to know that
You'll be fine
For the rerun
Baby it's a rerun

I'm not trying to make this hard
I'm just trying to play my part
And bless my soul
If I can make it through this mess alone

Rerun
Waking up
I call shot gun
Lay it up
For the rerun
Baby it's a rerun

And call back
On my line
I need to know that
You'll be fine
For the rerun
Baby it's a rerun

Rerun
Rerun
Rerun
Run
