

REMEMBER

Miami Horror

Time is changing
Holding on to the edge
Memories fading
Running wild in my head
Remember the days we had
Remember the times we shared
Remember the things we said
Didn't know it would end

Will you remember, oh oh
Will you remember, oh oh

I've been thinking 'bout
All the times we never had
Time to face it
If only we could pretend
Remember the way we felt
Remember how we could tell
Remember the things we shared
They were over, so fast

Will you remember, oh oh
Will you remember, oh oh

I've been waiting, but nothing's changing
I've been waiting, nothing's changing

Remember the days we had
Remember the times we shared
Remember the things we said
Didn't know it would end

Will you remember, oh oh
Will you remember, oh oh

I've been waiting, but nothing's changing
I've been waiting, nothing's changing
Oh, oh
Will you remember, oh oh
Oh, oh
