

Soft Light

Miami Horror

Flame flickers a soft light
Born from the midnight
Strokes slowly to her side
Secrets sworn concealed tight

See the strange fires
Billow from her vacant eyes
Strange fires
Melting through my distant guise
Strange fires
Billow from her vacant eyes
Strange fires
Melting through my distant guise

Flame flickers a soft light (from a love we cannot touch)
Born from the midnight (how lovely it's to be)
Strokes slowly to her side (from above we let you shine)
Secrets sworn concealed tight (close your keeps until it comes)

See the strange fires
Billow from her vacant eyes
Strange fires
Melting through my distant guise
Strange fires
Billow from her vacant eyes
Strange fires
Melting through my distant guise
