

You let him strangle you
That guided to the past
If what they say is true
These wounds are made to last
You're wreaking havoc under the ultraviolet light
And all the voices undone is vanish in the night

The sun goes down your eyes look out
If you're disguised conceal it
The sun comes up your eyes come out
You idealise this feeling

The sun goes down your eyes look out
If you're disguised conceal it
The sun comes up your eyes come out
You idealise this feeling

You let him strangle you
That guided to the past
If what they say is true
These wounds are made to last
You're wreaking havoc under the ultraviolet light
And all the voices undone is vanish in the night

As you (decide this gleaming[?])
I'm asking "hear the meaning"
It's such an empty feeling
It's such an empty feeling

As you decide this gleaming
I'm asking "hear the meaning"
It's such an empty feeling
It's such an empty feeling

The sun goes down your eyes look out
