

Eyes Of Innocence

Miami Sound Machine

When I look into your eyes
I can see all you hopes and dreams.
I can feel your warm desires and I know you're wanting me.
You've got to use discretion.
I don't know if it's right
to take away that look from you,
by loving you tonight.

I'm looking in the eyes,
in the eyes of the innocence
I don't know if it's right to feel this way
I'm looking in the eyes,
in the eyes of the innocence
And I'm afraid of the way you look at me

Something inside keeps telling me this is a love that cannot be.
And even though I should not stay can't bring myself to walk away.
You're holding my affections.
I don't know if it's right
to take away that look from you
by loving you tonight.

I'm looking in the eyes,
in the eyes of the innocence
I don't know if it's right to feel this way
I'm looking in the eyes,
in the eyes of the innocence
And I'm afraid of the way you look at me

I'm looking in the eyes,
in the eyes of the innocence
I don't know if it's right to feel this way
I'm looking in the eyes,
in the eyes of the innocence
And I'm afraid of the way,
I'm afraid of the way
I'm afraid of the way you look at me
