Tell me why
You let these niggas just waste your time
They just be fucking around an you don't deserve it
That man you're with should be holding you down an putting that work in
I could put you onto something new
Tell them other man to get a clue
I could treat you different, show you what you been missing
Oh yeah yeah yeah yeah
I got a lot of love for you, tell me just what I gotta do
To make you believe I'll never deceive you
It's you and me

So can you leave them man behind?
All they're gonna do is waste your time
All they're gonna do is waste your time
Ah, yeah
Hoping that I can change you mind
All I wanna do is make you mine
All I wanna do is make you mine
Ah, yeah

Girl, I understand that them man left you messed up
But don't pretend you're not looking for affection
Let me be your friend, girl, you know that I'm next up
You know I'm next up, you know I'm next up
Girl, I understand that them man left you messed up
But don't pretend you're not looking for affection
Let me be your friend, girl, you know that I'm next up

Got a couple jokers in your DMs but I beg you can you push 'em to the side,

You need a real man taking care of you, making sure that you're alright
I can be all that you need, just give me a minute to prove it
If I let slip through my fingers, baby, then that would be foolish

So can you leave them man behind?
All they're gonna do is waste your time
All they're gonna do is waste your time
Ah, yeah
Hoping that I can change you mind
All I wanna do is make you mine
All I wanna do is make you mine
Ah, yeah

Girl, I understand that them man left you messed up
But don't pretend you're not looking for affection
Let me be your friend, girl, you know that I'm next up
You know I'm next up, you know I'm next up
Girl, I understand that them man left you messed up
But don't pretend you're not looking for affection
Let me be your friend, girl, you know that I'm next up
