MiC LOWRY

I can read it on your lips
Feel it from the ground that you walk on
Taste it from your kiss
There's gotta be a way to free up some tension
Give me that attitude
Shouting loud
Like I told you so
Oh, you win this round but
Next time you won't be so sure

If you need I got it
What you waiting for
You can call it magic
Feet don't touch the floor
You and me together
No one has to know
It's what we need
Some therapy

I don't need nobody telling me
What you need
When I know I'm just what you want
Yeah, you know I got the remedy
What you need
Baby, when I'm breaking you off
Can we draw a line
We're wasting time
Baby, can we leave it alone
Don't wanna fuss and fight
Wait till tonight
I'ma fuck ya to your favourite song

Let me take your cloths off
Let me take a load off
Baby, this is so overdue
We just need some closure
Bodies getting closer
We don't need to talk this thing through

If you need I got it
What you waiting for
You can call it magic
Feet don't touch the floor
You and me together
No one has to know
It's what we need
Some therapy

I hate it
When you moaning
But I love it
When you groaning
Yeah, you angry
But you own it
You're so sexy
When you want it

If you need I got it
What you waiting for
You and me together
No one has to know
It's what we need
Some therapy
