

Last

Micah Tyler

There's a first time for everything but what nobody told me
Is that every new beginning has an end
Cause every day is numbered and there's no turning back
And time has proven it's nobody's friend
And I can't go back and start again
But I can live today like it might end

There's a time to laugh, a time to cry
The day you're born, the day you die
And suddenly your future is in the past
Wherever he leads I'll follow
And love like there's no tomorrow
I'm gonna start living like today could be my last
Like today could be my last

I'll fight for what has meaning, and let go of the rest
And choose to see the good in everything
I'll take less time to worry, I'll forgive a little more
And hold onto what matters in the end!

There's a time to laugh, a time to cry
The day you're born, the day you die
And suddenly your future is in the past
Wherever he leads I'll follow
And love like there's no tomorrow
I'm gonna start living like today could be my last

Nobody knows the hour, and nobody knows the date
When he will call me home to walk through heavens gates
So I will run this race, until it's time for me to go, cause I know...

There's a time to laugh, a time to cry
The day you're born, the day you die
But when I reach the end its just the beginning
Wherever he leads I'll follow
And love like there's no tomorrow
I'm gonna start living like today could be my last
I'm gonna start living like today could be my last

Like today could be my last...
