

Shell Song

Micatone

Come on take a walk with me
Take my hand we move in peace
Silent footprints, side by side
Watch the ocean and the tide
Stepping backwards
Tracing time
Quiet walking side by side
As we lean into the breeze
Pulling back, swimming upstream
In the echoes of the shells
Mermaids hissing deep sea tales
Of those gone missing
Torn up sails
Blow a kiss and wish them well
Mournful cry of the whales
Hear the story that they tell
It is heartache, don't deny
They are singing our goodbye
In the echoes of the shells
Mermaids hissing deep sea tales
Of those gone missing
Torn up sails
Make a wish and wish me well
