

Lost In The City

Michael Bolton

Lost in the city
I'm movin' around
To the sound of the song
I've been living

High altitudes mixed
With wrong attitudes
Make me wonder
Just what I've been giving
Why has it taken so long?
Tell me where I belong

Oh, oh
Love can open the door
Through these eyes I see
And love has opened this heart
For me

See you, I see you fly high
All above all of this
Makes me miss home
And the freedom

I've known for so long
Why has it taken so long?
Tell me where I went wrong
Oh, oh
