

The Unveiling

Michael Card

Hear the roaring at the rim of the world
See what every eye shall see
Behold He's coming with the clouds
Setting all the captives free
And those who longed to see this day
Will tremble with delight
As a sea of upturned faces there
Is bathed in endless light

CHORUS:

I am the Alpha and the Omega
The One who is and was and is to come
Though I was dead, now I'm alive forever
Don't be afraid
I hold the keys
And I have come

Once the just and gentle Victim
Who is seemed was born to die
See Him now, a blaze of glory
As He moves across the sky
And that majestic silhouette
Who's come to take His bride
Still bears the healing wounds
Upon His hands and feet and side

CHORUS

The great unveiling of our hope
The promised Jubilee
The revelation of our God

It's all we longed to see
