

Gambit

Michael Cretu

Wanted to save you,
Wanted to save you in the lonely night.
Moving and dancing,
Moving and dancing over Black and White.
Another look like a cry,
Another tear in your eye
- It's too late to leave.
You're pulling down your defense
And so I'm taking a chance,
I can't wait...

Gambit, gambit, gambit
- I'm playing with fire!
(You're about to win the game)
Gambit, gambit, gambit,
- I'm breaking the line.
Moving pieces of my heart,
Why I will dance in the dark?

I say: Gambit, gambit, gambit
- I'm playing with fire!
(You're about to win the game)
Gambit, gambit, gambit,
- I'm breaking the line.

Going to find you,
Going to find you deep inside my mind
And the rainbows,
And the rainbows of a stranger's game.
Another look like a cry,
Another tear in your eye
- It's too late, to leave
You're pulling down your defense
And so I'm taking a chance
I can't wait...

Gambit, gambit, gambit
- I'm playing with fire!
(You're about to win the game)
Gambit, gambit, gambit,
- I'm breaking the line.
Moving pieces of my heart,
Why I will dance in the dark?

I say: Gambit, gambit, gambit
- I'm playing with fire!
(You're about to win the game)
Gambit, gambit, gambit,
- I'm breaking the line.

---

Gambit, gambit, gambit
- I'm playing with fire!
(You're about to win the game)
Gambit, gambit, gambit,
- I'm breaking the line.

Gambit, gambit, gambit
- I'm playing with fire!
(You're about to win the game)
Gambit, gambit, gambit,
- I'm breaking the line.
