

I Can Still Feel You

Michael Franti & Spearhead

Your love is like water touching my memory
And I remember your smile when flowers drift on the sea
I can feel you when I look at the stars and the tremble of the falling rain
I can feel you in all of my joy and my pain, yes I can

I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone, gone-gone
I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone, gone-gone
Even though my heart is reaching for you
My body still feels alone
And I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone, gone-gone-gone

(Everybody get up)
(Everybody get up)
(Everybody get up)
(Everybody get up)

All of my good news meant nothing until I could share it with you
And all the photographs of the past they remind me of the blessings of you
So, put your hand in mine, won't you show me a sign
That you're here with me in heaven tonight
Come on and shine your light when I'm closing my eyes
Let me know everything will be alright

'Cause I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone, gone-gone
I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone, gone-gone
Even though my heart is reaching for you
My body still feels alone
And I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone, gone-gone-gone

(Everybody get up)
(Everybody get up)
(Everybody get up)
(Everybody get up)

I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone, gone-gone
I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone

I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone, gone-gone
I can still feel you
Even after you're gone-gone-gone, gone-gone-gone

(Everybody get up) Gone-gone-gone
(Everybody get up) Gone-gone-gone
(Everybody get up) Gone-gone-gone
(Everybody get up) Gone-gone-gone
