

Life is Amazing

Michael Franti & Spearhead

Life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again
Life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again
Let me tell you bout it right here
This one's dedicated to everybody out there that's just trynna
You know
Get by day by day
It's rough out there
Worldwide they say

The sky is the limit
But there's footsteps on the moon
And you call fall in love in January
But you could break up by June
People say I'll have time in a minute
But the minutes all pass too soon
So I thank God for every second
That I get to dance with you

Cause life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again
Life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again
So don't you worry what tomorrow brings
Or yesterday my friend
Life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again

And everybody say
Ohh oh oh oh, nah nah nah nah nah
And everybody say
Ohh oh oh oh, nah nah nah nah nah

Sometimes everybody blows up
Got a person in your life that you know ya love
Yeah, you say somethin' that you shouldn't have, shouldn't have
And realize later you're a jerk
Oh then you open up your eyes and apologize and Party with em til the sun rises
Throw your hands in the sky then
Realize everythin' is gonna be alright

Cause life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again
Life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again
So don't you worry what tomorrow brings
Or yesterday my friend
Life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again

And everybody say
Ohh oh oh oh, nah nah nah nah nah
Ohh oh oh oh, nah nah nah nah nah
Ohh oh oh oh, nah nah nah nah nah
Ohh oh oh oh, nah nah nah nah nah

Cause life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again
Life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again
So don't you worry what tomorrow brings
Or yesterday my friend
Life is amazing, then it sucks, then it's amazin' again
