

Don't Let Go

Michael Grimm

She has forgiveness in her heart
And a faith in her soul
And love like I've never known
And she let's it go
Yeah she let's it go

A dream too precious to repeat
As far as this world goes a bit too sweet
Her recollections of love gone by
And to all
To all she says goodnight

The river runs beneath her deep and cold
Clinging to the edge she bids her last goodbye hello
I'm no angel everybody knows
All the same I found myself
Shouting
Don't let go
Oh no

If cheap tequila has made me blind
And walking backwards has changed my sense of time
I'm not so scared that I did not know
That I was sad
So sad to see her go

And it's the worst of us that stand the test of time
It seems are just reward is living with our crime
And as she fell, I felt like I was dying
As though the love
The love we lost was mine

The river runs beneath her deep and cold
Clinging to the edge she bids her last goodbye hello
I'm no angel everybody knows
All the same I found myself
Shouting
Don't let go
Oh no

Standing on the bridge at night
The end of love
The end of light
The setting sun no second sight
She whispers
This can't be all there is
To life
Oh no
No no

She has forgiveness in her heart
And a faith in her soul
A love like I'll never know
