

I Am

Michael Grimm

Your chestnut hair and serious smile
Raspy laughing eyes, too deep to swim inside
Your fractured light and sideways glance
Time after time, you make me think I can
And you make me wish for heaven's sake that
I could be your man

Then I remember, then I remember
Then I remember - I am
With coffee grounds and midnight air
I turn around, and you were there
Fresh is your face, of scandle clean
An outlaw's grace, long may you lean
You make me wish for heaven's sake that
I could be your man

Then I remember, then I remember
Then I remember - I am

Oh it's a club of two, no room, me and you
Brand new, take me
Yeah it's a club of two, no room, just me and you
Brand new, baby, oh take me
Oh, won't you take me?
Please take me

You make me wish for heaven's sake that
I could be your man

But then I remember, then I remember
Then I remember - I am

It's a club of two, no room, just me and you [repeat]
