Michael Johnson

You say inside you beats a heart that could love someone
But up till now you've only known the ones who hit and run

Just because you hurt inside
Doesn't mean you'll stay that way
'Cause what the others never tried
I can give you every day

Lifetime love guarantee
Gonna be happy, happy
Givin' you a lifetime love guarantee
Gonna be happy with me

You come into this world alone
Looking for a friendly face
But all the while you know
What lies behind each new embrace

You won't have to hide your eyes
'Cause I will never turn away
Leave this world of pain and lies
Find ourselves a better day

Lifetime love guarantee
Gonna be happy, happy
Givin' you a lifetime love guarantee
Gonna be happy with me

You won't have to hide your eyes
'Cause I will never turn away
Leave this world of pain and lies
Find ourselves a better day

Lifetime love guarantee
Gonna be happy, happy
Givin' you a lifetime love guarantee
Gonna be happy with me
