

O.B. Glad

Michael Johnson

O. B. Glad you're alive
And today is the one day
You've been waiting to try
Walking out between the rain

O. B. Glad I am here
To have the fun to share the tear
It will be gone in a wink but honey
It's gonna last longer than you think
Hey hey hey

O.B. Glad don't be sad
There's a leftover moon a smiling
Over the hen house door
Here comes morning looking for more

It's calling to you
Hear the footprints cross the dew
Oh do you hear those footprints cross the dew
Do you

O. B. Glad
Walking out between the rain
Walking out between the rain
Sing it one more time again
