

Q.T.

Michael Johnson

I see your car at the bottom of the hill
In twenty more seconds, you'll be here
I just got time to kiss my baby goodbye
Show her out the back way

Got some loving on the Q.T.
Got me loving on the Q.T.
Well the love ain't true but it sure will do
On the Q.T., ah Q.T.

See you smiling as you walk my way
You ask me if I've had a real good day
I tell you something off the top of my head
But the last thing I would've said was

I was loving on the Q.T.
Loving on the Q.T.
Well the love ain't true but it sure will do
On the Q.T., ah Q.T.

Wait a minute girl, I didn't know
You started wearing cologne
And your clothes are disheveled
Your hair is a mess
Started crying as I heard you confess

You've been loving on the Q.T.
Have you been loving on the Q.T.
You say the love ain't true but it sure will do, on the Q.T.
Looks like the joke's on me

Maybe someday I can love you on the Q.T.
