

Staying With It

Michael Johnson

This is it, this is what I've waited for so long
Starting now, gotta trust these feelings coming on
Take a chance even though I feel like I should run

Staying with it, let my heart take me there
Got a feeling, ooh I'm getting somewhere
Deep in it and I really do care
Wait a minute now, oh don't walk out

I can see, I can see your disbelieving eyes
Don't you know holding back your love is so unwise
Take a chance, ain't it time you took a lover's stand

Staying with it, let my heart take me there
Got a feeling, ooh I'm getting somewhere
Deep in it and I really do care
Wait a minute now, oh don't walk out
