When You Come Home

Michael Johnson

When you come home, fire'll be burning deep inside my heart
I've been a fool, I never knew what missing you could put me th rough
When you come home, I'm going show you how I really feel
I can't believe I ever let you go, the truth is hard to show
And darling, you should know

And now I tell myself that loving you is all I wanna do
I'd give anything just to have you back again
'Cause I can't make it on my own, feel I'm sinking like a stone
Oh, rescue me, darling, please, come home

And now I tell myself that loving you is all I wanna do
I'd give anything just to have you back again
'Cause I can't make it on my own, feel I'm sinking like a stone
Oh, rescue me, darling, please, come home
Darling, please, come home
Darling, please, come home
