

I Don't Deserve Love

Michael Kiske

Most of my days are dancing around me
Most of my time it's I, my, me, mine

If you wanna buy trouble, go spend some of you in me
If you want that your heart breaks, fine!

I'm sad and lonely but It's only right
I'm far too hungry building boundaries

I don't deserve your love!
No I don't deserve love!

If you see me coming, consider running
When I enter your room, I'm there
Even my longing-prayer is a stunning
Feast of my own somewhere

It's hard to leave me, I can't stay of my path
I claim to be free but who is that you see?

I don't deserve your love!
No I don't deserve love!

I won't forget to bring you down
To build a nice frame for your frown

I won't forget to boost your pain
Forever and always the same is me.

I'm sad and lonely but it's only right
I'm still too hungry feeding my being

Nothing I'm saying I say without me
All that I sell is mine

The songs that I'm singing, the love that I'm bringing
Even my waste of time

I don't deserve your love!
No I don't deserve love!

I don't deserve your love!
No I don't deserve love!
