

Another Human Being

Michael Kiwanuka

And for the first time
The community was confronted with negroes
In places where they had never been (Where they had never been)

You cause no violence
You have no angry words
The idea that here sits beside me, another human being