

Fools Direction

Michael Learns to Rock

I was lost on my own
had become a rolling stone
You talked to me
You talked to me

Holding back
a lonely scream
I was giving up my dreams
You danced with me
You danced with me

There's nobody here but you and me in the dark Why do I stay when I should run away

It's a fools direction
but I'm holding on cos' I need your love my girl
in a mad and crazy world

Someone broke my heart before and I promised that no one more should let me down
should let me down

There's nobody here...

It's a fools direction
but I'm holding on
cos' you keep me warm my girl in a cold cold world
And I need protection and I need to be held I just need your love my girl
