

You'll Be Mine

Michael Learns to Rock

I can't deny this way I'm feeling in my mind
I can't keep hiding from what I must realize

The way you look at me
The way you make me feel
And everything seems so unreal
(I wanna be your love)
The way you touch my hand
I'll take it as a sign
And I know
And I know that you'll be mine

If there would only be an easy way for us
Cause there's a world around it trying to hurt our love

The way you look at me
Your smile has made me blind
And I dream
Yes, I dream that you'll be mine

Swimming in the sunshine
Walking in the snow
Do we have a fair chance?
I really wanna know

The way you look at me
The way you make me feel
And everything seems so unreal
(You could bend the heart of steel)
The way you touch my hand
I'll take it as a sign
And I know
And I know that you'll be mine
And I feel
Yes, I feel that you'll be mine
Or is it just
Is it just a dream of mine?
