

Do You Remember Yesterday?

Michael Malarkey

I keep my thoughts to myself
While you keep yourself to your thoughts
I keep rewinding my tapes
They remind me of you
Do you remember yesterday?

I keep a memory of the time
While you keep the time for your memories
I can't help but walk down those lanes
They remind me of you
Do you remember yesterday?

Someone set me free
Free from this love
So I can love again
Without her eyes on me
Oh let me be
Free from this love
So I can love again
Without her eyes on me
Oh let me be
Free

Leaving me
Was the best thing that you did
For yourself
But the worst thing for me
The deeper the need
For the only love I had
Who moved away
The harder to let it be

I fought my hardest to try
While you tried your hardest to fight
And when I looked down into your eyes
Your love was gone
Can you remember yesterday?
Cause for me
It's not going away

Someone set me free
Free from this love
So I can love again
Without her eyes on me
Oh let me be
Free from this love
So I can love again
Without her eyes on me
Oh let me be
Free
Can you remember yesterday?
Can you remember yesterday?
