

Thunder At Sea

Michael Malarkey

Now fades the day
At the point of no return
Got a wolf by the ears
And a blister on my thumb
I savor the way she looks at me
That terrible gaze

Thunder at sea
Damn hunger
Damn hunger

And done and done, as we shake the family tree
All rowling row under calm confetti leaves
I've looked the death right in the eyes
And I was looking at me
Thunder at sea

I feel it all
Inside these walls
Where spiders crawl
Keep calm and carry me

Where but here in the clutch of reckoning
I feel a slip and my knuckles start to bleed
No other way to keep the peace
Tear pieces from me

Thunder at sea
Damn hunger
Damn hunger

I feel it all
Inside these walls
Where spiders crawl
Keep calm and carry me

I feel it all
Inside these walls
Where spiders crawl
Keep calm and carry me
Keep calm and carry me
Keep calm and carry me
