

Good Enough

Michael Marcagi

Well they told me need to grow up
Living like you're 17
It's been too long going nowhere
Wake up from your fever dream

You said I wasn't good
You said I wasn't good enough
You said I wasn't good
You said I wasn't good enough

And it's midnight, there was no one
I'm playing at the MOTR Pub
All the drunks flood through the streets of Ohio's overrun
With the lost souls through the windows
Invisible to every fucking one

You said I wasn't good
You said I wasn't good enough
You said I wasn't good
You said I wasn't good enough

Worrying your family and your friends
Feel your fingers touch the bitter end

You said I wasn't good
You said I wasn't good enough
You said I wasn't good
You said I wasn't good enough

You said I wasn't good
You said I wasn't good enough
Break it like you do
My heart can only beat for love
