

Keep Me Honest

Michael Marcagi

Reaching nothing but dial tone
How's it been being on your own?
You'd be the first to let me know
Oh come on down from your pedestal
Blame it all on the bitter cold
Things get better with time I'm told
I made you laugh a few months ago
And that's all I think about

If you're impressed, well I can't tell
It hurts but I know you mean well
I swear I never forgot it, ooh

How you keep me honest
Yeah you keep me honest

And don't tell your sister
What we did in the city
A beautiful distraction
From all of my self-pity
And if we're going somewhere, let's go
To the end of the line
Well I stumbled through the streets with you
And I want that every night

If you're impressed, well I can't tell
It hurts but I know you mean well
I swear I never forgot it, ooh

How you keep me honest
Yeah you keep me honest

I was dreaming for the dream to begin
And now I'm waiting for the waiting to end, hm

If you're impressed, well I can't tell
It hurts but I know you mean well
I swear I never forgot it, ooh

How you keep me honest
Yeah you keep me honest
You keep me honest
Oh, hey, yeah you keep me honest
Yeah you keep me honest
Ah, hey, ooh
