

Do Anything You Wanna Do

Michael Monroe

I'm gonna break out of this city
Leave the people here behind
Searching for adventure
It's the type of life to find
Tired of doing day-jobs
With no thanks for what I do
I'm sure I must be someone
Now I'm gonna find out who
Refrain:
Why don't you ask them
What they expect from you
Why don't you tell them
What you are gonna do
You get so lonely
Maybe it's better that way
It ain't you only
You got something to say
Do anything you wanna do
I don't need no politician
Tell me things I shouldn't be
Neither no optician
Tell me what I ought to see
No one tells you nothing
Even when you know they know
But they tell you what you should do
They don't like to see you grow
Refrain
Do anything you wanna do
Gonna break out of this city
Leave the suckers here behind
Searching for adventure
It's the type of life to find
Tired of doing favours
With no thanks for what I do
I know I must be someone
Now I'm gonna find out who
Do anything you wanna do
