

Comes To Pour

Michael Nau

Can't get high enough
To turn the thunder off
So may as well lie out in the storm
Don't let the tune of sorrow
Echo into tomorrow
That's not what your sweet heart is for

Sure has been a long tear
But love belongs here
Of this is all I'm really sure
There there it's alright
Whether it's the sunlight
Or the rain who comes to pour

I know there's no song like lonely
No room like empty
But that's not what your heart is for
There there it's alright
Whether it's the sunlight
Or the rain who comes to pour
Or the rain who comes to pour
Or the rain who comes to pour
