

Same Line

Michael Nau

There's a sky around the world
A distance holding everything
You can't find it anywhere
Reach out and touch it if you dare

Like the spider in midair
On a funny wind
Not holding on
To anything

Sometimes it all seems so out of touch
Other times it all seems too
Connected
So hard and so simple at the same time
A peace and a ripple through the same line

But sometimes
Like chewed gum on a heel
Like the nail in the wheel
I'm in motion
