

Sure It Can

Michael Nau

Well maybe now I know, now I know
Well maybe now I know, now I know

Here's a tune for the start of it, the start of it
Something warm for the heart of it, the heart of it
Just an arrow across the dark of it, the dark of it
Anywhere near the mark of it, the mark of it

Sure it can be a drip in the sea
But I'm longing to see you

Well maybe now I know, now I know
Now I know there's no love like your's
Now I know what the door is for
I never knew before

Sure it can be a drip in the sea
But I'm longing to see you

And with you I'll be...
