

Harmony Constant

Michael Nesmith

Politely perusing my state of affairs
With nothing apparently wrong
A silent and quiet restoration occurs
Of emotions forgotten and gone

Then, slowly my eyes start an effortless rise
Exposing the past to review
And the harmony constant in all of these things
Is the thought of the future with you

Unlimited joy, unlimited time
And the beauty of infinite light
Unlimited freedom that's rightfully mine
And is yours is unlimited life

The concept of loving has ultimate might
The power of peace and truth
And the harmony constant in all of these things
Is the thought of the future with you

Unlimited joy, unlimited time
And the beauty of infinite light
Unlimited freedom that's rightfully mine
And is yours is unlimited life

The concept of loving has ultimate might
The power of peace and truth
And the harmony constant in all of these things
Is the thought of the future with you
