

I'll Remember You

Michael Nesmith

Fred and Ginger
I'll remember you
Still your magic
Comes through the late night tube

Hey how'd ya think up
All those dances
That made those dumb plots
Seem so romantic?
Ah, Fred and Ginger
You were the best by far

John, my friend And the band you sang
You wrote the songs
That helped to ease the pain

Where'd ya think up
All those hook lines
That so completely captured those times?
Ahh, John my friend
You were the best by far

Because you danced
And you danced
And you danced
'Cross the silver screen
And you sang
And you sang
And you sang
In your submarine

Fred and Ginger,
Paul, George, and Ringo, too
Those days are gone
But I'll remember you

And so everything you did
Is still alive today
And though I'm late
There's something I must say

Thank you for the times you gave me
Thank you for the tears you saved me
Please take this song
As my thanks to you

Because you danced
And you danced
And you danced
'Cross the silver screen
And you sang
And you sang
And you sang
In your submarine

Fred and Ginger,
Paul, George, and Ringo, too

Those days are gone
But I'll remember you

And so everything you did
Is still alive today
And though I'm late

Thank you for the times you gave me
Thank you for the tears you saved me
Please take this song
As my thanks to you

Fred and Ginger
John and Paul
George and Ringo
And all

I'll remember you
I'll remember you

I'll remember
I'll remember
I'll remember
You
