

Home

Michael Patrick Kelly

When it's time for me to go
I just want for you to know
That my ship will find the light
So please don't cry, it'll be alright

'Cause I sail home, I sail home
I sail home to where I belong
I sail home, I sail home
I sail home to the place where I belong

I'll be carried by the waves
To the other side
I made my peace, I'm not afraid
And the wind will sing the gentle song
And blow me off the shore
Don't hold the rope, let it go
My work is done

'Cause I sail home, I sail home
I sail home to where I belong
Oh, I sail home, I sail home
I sail home to the place where I belong

Now it's time for me to go
A new dawn for my little soul
So goodbye beloved friend
There's a life beyond, this is not the end

'Cause I sail home, I sail home
I sail home to where I belong
It'll be alright, there's no need to cry
'Cause I sail home to the place where I belong

Home, home
Home, I sail home
Home
I sail home to where I belong

It'll be alright, there's no need to cry
I sail home to the place where I belong

Home, home
Home, I sail home