Sometimes it feels like you've got no one by your side
A heart of steel, you know you need it to survive
Behind the bars, you never see the light of day
No shooting star, does anybody hear you pray?

Waiting for the time to carve the outline of new you
Waiting for the sign to better everything about you
About you

Oh you, you are an icon
You're the only one who caught my eye
You, you are an icon
You're just waiting for a thing a try

Broken mirrors putting scars upon your face
Amongst ancient pillars, judges will review your case

Waving off the crime, you'll carve the outline of new you
Weighing every time you pay for your past that was new
That was new

Now you, you are an icon
You're the only one who caught my eye
You, you are an icon
You're just waiting for a thing a try
You, you are an icon
You're a beauty no one can defy

Wake up now
'Cause you've got all it takes
Don't give up
'Cause you've got all it takes

You, you are an icon
You're the only one who caught my eye
You, you are an icon
You're just waiting for a thing a try
You, you are an icon
You're an icon

Oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh
