

Requiem

Michael Patrick Kelly

I've been thinking about the dark soul of Rock'n'Roll
About the loss, about the heavy toll
Voices of angels are suddenly just gone
Life can be short, but melody lives on

I sing a requiem and a halle- hallelujah
Requiem and a halle- I sing for you
Requiem and a halle- hallelujah
To light up the dark

I heard the news about how she was found
About a man who pulled the trigger and fell to the ground
Another one walked into the river and got swept along
Life can be short, but melody lives on

I sing a requiem and a halle- hallelujah
Requiem and a halle- I sing for you
Requiem and a halle- hallelujah

Oh, until they are touching the sky
Higher they fly
Touching you, take them to paradise

Requiem and a halle- hallelujah
Requiem and a halle- I sing for you
Requiem and a halle- hallelujah

Oh, until they are touching the sky
Higher they fly
Touching you, take them to paradise

I've been thinking about the dark soul of Rock'n'Roll
